Second Fall Color Drive
Destination: Heaven's Landing
Sunday, October 25th

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

I returned home late last night from a sixteen hundred mile round trip to Flint, Michigan. The occasion was my fifty year High School class reunion. Growing up in a car town like Flint was great. All those muscle cars from the sixty's and early seventy's was intoxicating. But I always wanted something more exotic. Dad was not amused when I returned home from college one year in a new 1970 E Type Jaguar. The '68 Camaro I was driving was paid for, the Jag carried a monthly payment! Tis better to ask for forgiveness than ask for permission. Thus began a lifetime of special car ownership. Some were fast or handled nicely and some were just rare to be seen in. I left Flint in 1965 for my life adventures. First school, the US Army and then my professional career here in Georgia.

Submitted by Rick McMillan

The reunion Saturday night was very nice and the food was good. But here I was struggling to socialize with people I really didn't know. I had been gone a very long time. I'm glad I went, because I know I made the right decision a long time ago. The beauty of this trip was my new to me, Jaguar XF. What a wonderful car to travel in, that's the point I was trying to make! See you at the NGJC Concours in Gainesville.

John W. Hollier

Clean one owner 1986 Jaguar XJ6 Vanden Plas. 53,727 original miles. Power windows, locks, mirrors, tan leather interior, sunroof, aftermarket cd player. All original with the exception of the cd player. Driven since new by my grandmother, non smoker, no accidents.

No body damage, no tears in the seats, or carpet. You will not be disappointed with this car, must see to appreciate, I will be glad to listen to any reasonable offers.

Submitted by Lory Healy, Cat Boutique Chairman

I would like to thank all the NGJC members, Jaguar/Land Rover of Gwinnett and newsletter advertisers for making the Cat Boutique Auction the huge success that it was with their donations, time and effort. Concours d'Elegance October 11th in Gainesville

Submitted by John Baxa

We took a break from the rainy weather on Sunday the 11th just to have a Concours without worrying about getting our cars wet. With 45 registered cars including several from the Carolinas, Tennessee, and Florida, the turnout was a portent of the good weather, good food and camaraderie all enjoyed for this our club's 13th time of hosting this event.

There's lots to be thankful for, but especially for those who spent considerable time making this day come off looking like it was no effort at all. Ah, but we know better. There's lots of planning and arranging that takes place beforehand. Thanks to John Hoffman, VP for Concours, Craig Kerins, Chief Judge, Lory Healy for arranging the Cat Boutique and Roy and Linda Cleveland for arranging the Chattahoochee Country Club venue and all the club members who make it all work. Thanks also to Jaguar/Land Rover of Gwinnett for their sponsorship of the luncheon.

Movie Review: "Lord Montagu" Is A Must For History Buffs

Review by Mary Sparkman (from RedCarpetCrash)

The fascinating inside story of Lord Edward Montagu, one of England's most controversial and iconic aristocrats who passed away August 31st at age 89. It was his father who was a pioneer motorist who purchased a 2-cylinder Daimler in 1898 and a year later a 4-cylinder model in which he competed in the Paris Ostend race finishing 3rd in his class. But son Edward came into possession of the Beaulieu estate in 1951 at the age of 25 and decided to increase the estate's income by opening the Palace House to the public. A few years later he began the Montagu Motoring Museum which evolved into the National Motor Museum Trust. Lord Montagu authored many motoring books and co-authored many others, including his autobiography Wheels within Wheels: An Unconventional Life. His son Ralph inherits his title.

I admit I am no history buff and had very little knowledge (or interest) about Lord Edward Montagu before embarking on this documentary. This starts a bit slow and I wondered what I had gotten myself into for the next 80 minutes. However, as visitors roamed throughout the stately house of Beaulieu, the charming voice of Lord Edward reminisced about the shadows of his past. "All that will be left of me is a painting on the wall... what will people think of me."

Okay, now this was getting interesting. What is this shadowy past you speak of Lord Edward? His birth had been long awaited by his 61 year old father who yearned for a male heir. After four daughters, Edward's arrival was a celebration, for now the Beaulieu estate would be passed down to him. Sadly, he inherited it just shy of his third birthday when his father passed away. This ingrained in him at a very early age to be responsible for this property at all costs and to keep it intact for future generations.

Edward proved to be a gregarious showman and as WWII bombarded London with German bombs, Edward knew his precious Beaulieu was at stake. Taxes were rising and maintaining a large, historic house was difficult. Edward made the decision to open his home to the public. It was hugely successful until... Scandal!

Lord Edward, as he stated in his book, never hid the fact that he was attracted to both sexes. In the 1950's, homosexuality was illegal and suffice to say the combination of a stolen camera, boy scouts, and a swimming hole, a trial ensued and it took a huge toll on Edward and a steep decline in visitors and profit for the Beaulieu estate. Edward did spend time in jail on charges of homosexuality and indecency. Many felt the jail time was unreasonable and Edward had been made a scapegoat. This high profile case became the catalyst to change laws decriminalizing homosexuality.

Edward weathered this storm and went on to revive Beaulieu into a thriving museum adding a motor car display in honor of his father. The Beaulieu house was so successful that other stately homes tried their own gimmicks to lure visitors. But no one could top Edward who continued to add to the fairground type atmosphere. His was known as the Disneyland of stately homes.

Edward lived a life of resilience and held an obligation to treat his inheritance as a gift to the people of London. He was a driven and extraordinary man. This film is a must for any history buff.

Second Fall Color Drive Destination: Heaven's Landing, Sunday, October 25th

Submitted by John Hollier

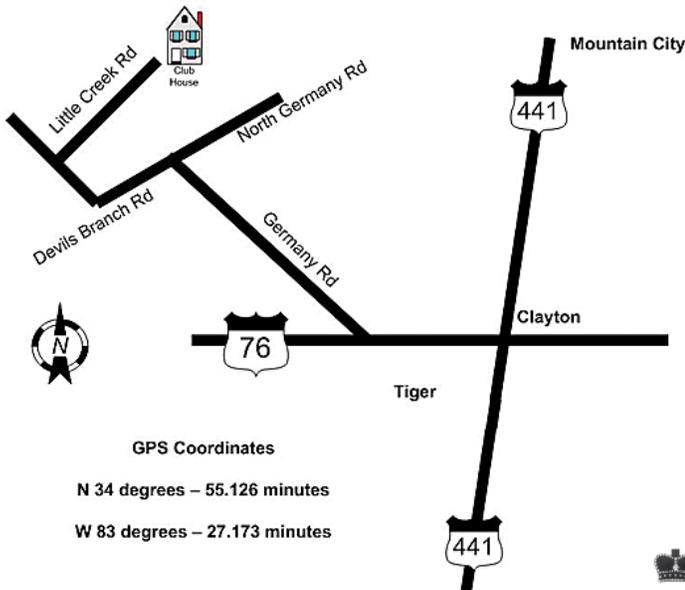

Tours of Heaven's Landing will also be available. Heaven's Landing is a unique and beautiful Mountain Estate Airpark. Located three miles northwest of the City of Clayton, it is nestled in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Northeast Georgia.

Heaven's Landing is a 635 acre gated community surrounded by thousands of acres of National Forest. The aviation centerpiece of Heaven's Landing is a 5,069 foot paved concrete runway with pilot controlled lighting and a GPS approach. The runway is designed to accommodate most any private plane, but is exclusively used by community members and guests only. Three hundred estate sized lots with "heavenly views" encircle the landing strip. Check out Heaven's Landing's featured videos here: http://www.heavenslanding.com/mountain_estate_airpark.htm

A seven minute drive from Heaven's Landing to downtown Clayton Ga provides for a multitude of area amenities in a home town atmosphere of 'Old Americana'. Restaurants are plentiful and shopping is abundant, yet big city traffic is never an issue.

The climate at Heaven's Landing features a perfect balance of all four seasons. Long noted as a place "Where Spring Spends the Summer", Rabun County enjoys mild Spring like temperatures right through September. Fall colors are breathtaking, and Winter at Heaven's Landing is most always mild. Snowfall is rare, with just two to five inches on average annually, and before you know it Spring comes back around featuring beautiful dogwood blossoms that compliment a rolling mountain landscape of emerald green.
